

Cincinnati, Ohio.

Sept 29, 1864

Mr President.

I take the great liberty of introducing Charles Eginton Esq, the Presi-dential Elector of the Ashland District, to you He is every way worthy of your confidence - and can clearly ex-plain our position & prospects in Ky.

I spoke here last night, to four or five thousand people, in the opera house; and am here, because I believe the best thing that can be done for Kentucky
- just now, is to carry Ohio - and the other states which <sup>vote</sup> early in October - by great majorities.
We can promise nothing for Ky; but will carry it for you, if we can - and are not without hope. With great Respect

His Excellency

Abraham Lincoln

President of the U.S.
