

My Dear Sir,

As the Presbytery is just broke up, & Mr. Smith is about to set out on his Journey immediately, I have no Time to write to you at large, or to any of the Trustees, tho' I shall ever be sensible of the great Honour they have done me.

Mr. Smith, who has managed his Trust with great Fidelity & Prudence, can inform you of my sentiments on the Affair. I never was so much at my Wits End: & as I had no other Guide but the Presbytery's Judgment, I implicitly submitted to that. If they had voted for my accepting the Trust, I should have complied: but since it is otherwise, I heartily acquiesce — With great Affection & Esteem

I am,

Sir,

Hanover
Sep. 14, 1758.

Your obliged humble serv^t
