SHIHEN.

PSALM I.

1 BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The wicked are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM II.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure:

6 Yet I have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will tell of the decree: the LORD said unto me, Thou art my son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Now therefore be wise, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, how are mine adversaries increased ! many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, there is no help for him in God. [Selah.]

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield about me ; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cry unto the LORD with my voice, and he answereth me out of his holy hill. [Selah.]

5 I laid me down and slept ; I awaked ; for the LORD sustaineth me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD ; save me, O my God : for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone ; thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD : thy blessing be upon thy people. [Selah.]

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness : evil shall not sojourn with thee.

5 The arrogant shall not stand in thy sight : thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies : the LORD abhorreth the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, in the multitude of thy lovingkindness will I come into thy house : in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul : and he said,

1 I LOVE thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer ; my God, my strong rock, in him will I trust ; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised : so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The cords of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

5 The cords of Sheol were round about me : the snares of death came upon me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God : he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry before him came into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled, the foundations also of the mountains moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

A Psalm ; a Song at the Dedication of the House ; a Psalm of David.

1 I WILL extol thee, O LORD ; for thou hast raised me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from Sheol : thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing praise unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks to his holy name.

5 For his anger is but for a moment ; in his favour is life ; weeping may tarry for the night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, I shall never be moved.

7 Thou, LORD, of thy favour hadst made my mountain to stand strong : thou didst hide thy face ; I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD ; and unto the LORD I made supplication :

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit ? shall the dust praise thee ? shall it declare thy truth ?

PSALM XXXIX.

For the Chief Musician, for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

1 I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the fire kindled: Then spake I with my tongue:

4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; let me know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as handbreadths; and mine age is as nothing before thee: surely every man at his best estate is altogether vanity. [Selah.]

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, LORD, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

O LORD? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Rise up for our help, and redeem us for thy lovingkindness'

PSALM XLVI.

For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A Song.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. [Selah.]

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels compasseth me about ?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches ;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him.

8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly, and must be let alone for ever :)

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people:

5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness; for God is judge himself. [Selah.]

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify unto thee: I am God, even thy God.

PSALM LX.

For the Chief Musician; set to Shushan Eduth: Michtam of David, to teach: when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the Valley of Salt twelve thousand.

O GOD, thou hast cast us off, thou hast broken us down; thou hast been angry; O restore us again.

2 Thou hast made the land to tremble; thou hast rent it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of staggering.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. [Selah.

5 That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and answer us.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will exult: I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the defence of mine head; Judah is my sceptre.

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

21 Therefore the LORD heard, and was wroth: and a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also went up against Israel;

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation.

23 Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;

24 And he rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat the bread of the mighty: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he guided the south wind.

40 How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 And they turned again and tempted God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary.

43 How he set his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan;

44 And turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink.

45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost.

48 He gave over their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt, the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham:

52 But he led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He drove out the nations also before them, and allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, and kept not his testimonies;

57 But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men ;

61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the adversary's hand.

62 He gave his people over also unto the sword ; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 Fire devoured their young men ; and their maidens had no marriage-song.

64 Their priests fell by the sword ; and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his adversaries backward : he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim ;

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds :

PSALM LXXIX.

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, O LORD, wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the kingdoms that call not upon thy name.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, where is their God ? let the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed be known among the heathen in our sight.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee ; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to death ;

4 O LORD God of hosts, how the prayer of thy people ?

5 Thou hast fed them with them tears to drink in large measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of

2 Take up the psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast day.

4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

5 He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out over the land of Egypt : where I heard a language that I knew not.

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden : his hands were freed from the basket.

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee ; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder ; I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. [Selah.]

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee : O Israel, if thou wouldest hearken unto me !

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed in thine anger, and in thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath : we bring our years to an end as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten, or even by reason of strength fourscore years ; yet is their pride but labour and sorrow ; for it is soon gone, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger, and thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee ?

1 HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress ; my God, in whom I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

PSALM XCII.

A Psalm, a Song for the sabbath day.

1 IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High :

2 To shew forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

3 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery ; with a solemn sound upon the harp.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work : I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 How great are thy works, O LORD ! thy thoughts are very deep.

6 A brutish man knoweth not ; neither doth a fool understand this :

7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish ; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever :

8 But thou, O LORD, art on high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish ; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

16 Ware nagaki inochi wo mote kare wo tarawashime, katsu waga sukui wo shimesan.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree : he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age ; they shall be full of sap and green :

15 To shew that the LORD is upright ; he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

PSALM XCIV.

1 O LORD, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render to the proud their desert.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 They prate, they speak arrogantly: all the workers of iniquity boast themselves.

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 For judgement shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in silence.

22 But the LORD hath been my high tower ; and my God the rock of my refuge.

23 And he hath brought upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own evil ; the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM XCV.

1 O COME, let us sing unto the LORD : let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with that generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways :

11 Wherefore I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

1 O SING unto the LORD a new song : sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

5 Sing praises unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp and the voice of melody.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein;

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool : holy is he.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name ; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud : they kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God : thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

PSALM C.

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

1 MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: give thanks unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; his mercy endureth for ever; and his faithfulness unto all generations.

PSALM CI.

A Psalm of David.

1 I WILL sing of mercy and judgement: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing praises.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way: oh when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no base thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave unto me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will know no evil thing.

PSALM CII.

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

1 HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and let my cry come unto thee.

7 I watch, and am become like a sparrow that is alone upon the the housetop.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day ; they that are mad against me do curse by me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me away.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth ; and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt abide for ever ; and thy memorial unto all generations.

16 For the LORD hath built up Zion, he hath appeared in his glory ;

17 He hath regarded the prayer of the destitute, and hath not despised their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come : and a people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary ; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth ;

20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner ; to loose those that are appointed to death ;

21 That men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem ;

22 When the peoples are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way ; he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days : thy years are throughout all generations.

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

8 They went up by the mountains, they went down by the valleys, unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth forth springs into the valleys ; they run among the mountains :

11 They give drink to every beast of the field ; the wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them the fowl of the heaven have their habitation, they sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the mountains from his chambers : the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

18 The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the conies.

19 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they get them away, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created; and thou renewest the face of the ground.

31 Let the glory of the LORD endure for ever; let the LORD rejoice in his works:

32 Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth; he toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

34 Let my meditation be sweet unto him: I will rejoice in the LORD.

35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 Their land swarmed with frogs, in the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and there came swarms of flies, and lice in all their borders.

32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their borders.

34 He spake, and the locust came, and the cankerworm, and that without number,

35 And did eat up every herb in their land, and did eat up the fruit of their ground.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed ; for the fear of them had fallen upon them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering ; and fire to give light in the night.

40 They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed out ; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy word, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with singing.

44 And he gave them the lands of the nations ; and they took the labour of the peoples in possession :

PSALM CVI.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD, or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgement, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people; O visit me with thy salvation:

5 That I may see the prosperity of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.

11 And the waters covered their adversaries : there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words ; they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works ; they waited not for his counsel :

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request ; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company ; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped a molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory for the likeness of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt ;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word ;

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand unto them, that he would overthrow them in the wilderness :

27 And that he would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings ; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgement : and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness, unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes :

34 They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them ;

35 But mingled themselves with the nations, and learned their works :

36 And they served their idols ; which became a snare unto them :

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto demons,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan ; and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their works, and went a whoring in their doings.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, and he abhorred his inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the nations ; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them ; but they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with singing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul melteth away because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.

32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people, and praise him in the seat of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and watersprings into a thirsty ground;

34 A fruitful land into a salt desert, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth a wilderness into a pool of water, and a dry land into watersprings.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city of habitation;

37 And sow fields, and plant vineyards, and get them fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

A Song, a Psalm of David.

1 MY heart is fixed, O God; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake right early.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the peoples: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens, and thy truth reacheth unto the skies.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered, save with thy right hand, and answer us.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, and the broken in heart, to slay them.

17 Yea, he loved cursing, and it came unto him; and he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him.

18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment, and it came into his inward parts like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the raiment wherewith he covereth himself, and for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 This is the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But deal thou with me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me, 22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou : when they arise, they shall be ashamed, but thy servant shall rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with dishonour, and let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a mantle.

30 I will give great thanks unto the LORD with my mouth ;

multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the him from them that judge his

2 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto the Mighty One of Jacob:

3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

PSALM CXLIX.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the assembly of the saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him : let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dance : let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people : he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints exult in glory : let them sing for joy upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand ;

7 To execute vengeance upon the nations, and punishments upon the peoples ;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron ;
