to promote, especially in young manhood,—these “Talks” are well adapted to minister to the religious needs of inquiring and thoughtful readers. As a student who had the pleasure of hearing a stimulating course of lectures by the author in a different yet related field of study, the writer expresses the hope that these sermons, which have had vitality enough to prove their serviceableness through four decades of use among college men, may now, in their printed form, have even a wider and longer range of influence for the cultivation of the spiritual life.

Sermons on the Epistles of the Ecclesiastical Year. By HENRY SIECK, Lutheran Pastor, St. Louis, Mo.; Concordia Publishing House, 1912. 8vo; pp. ix, 385. $1.50 postpaid.

The volume contains sixty-five sermons, covering the festal days as well as the Sundays of the ecclesiastical year. The discourses are always well analyzed and generally have a decidedly expository character. In one respect many modern hearers and readers of sermons will regard these specimens as quite ideal—their brevity. But they have other decided merits, due to their fidelity in the handling of the texts and to their simple, clear, and direct style.

Katechismuspredigten über das erste und zweite Hauptstück. Katechismuspredigten über das dritte, vierte und fünfte Hauptstück. Von C. C. SCHMIDT, Pastor an der ev.=luth. Gemeinde zum heiligen Kreuz in St. Louis, Mo. St. Louis, Mo.: Concordia Publishing House. Two volumes in one, 6 x 9 inches; pp. vi, 273 and 136. Vol. I dated 1905; Vol. II, not dated. $2.

After two introductory sermons on Holy Scripture, the first of these two volumes devotes forty-nine sermons to the Decalogue and the Apostles' Creed, while the second devotes twenty-two sermons to the Lord's Prayer, Baptism, the Power of the Keys, and the Lord's Supper. Most of the discourses were specially prepared by the pastor for catechetical instruction at his own afternoon service. But because the three discussions concerning the Lord's Supper were not in the first instance used as expositions of the Catechism, the title of the second volume makes no reference to this “sixth main division.”

The sermons are well adapted to their purpose. They are the work of a man who is “apt to teach”, if one may judge from the skill displayed in the analysis and arrangement of the biblical and confessional material and from the rhetorical form in which these lessons are set forth.
