

10/4/72

#146

146

U of Va Oct 4th 72

My dear son

yours of the 27th ult is received.

I regret the small number of your matriculates. Let us hope for the best.

Keep me informed (a line will suffice) of the situation "Boards" seem every where determined to strike the Pops and Presotts - ours is not an exception - but a man here makes his excuses - in reply.

I hope you and Pt were able to attend Dr Stewart's funeral. Poor Mary! she will,
I fear, find herself in the hands of shocks and hopes -!

Give our kind regards to your Mother - Remember <sup>also</sup> us, to Prof Coleman - McCosh is certainly

34-1E

to: A.D. Hepburn - Oxford, O. from: W.H. McGuffey - U. of Va.
October 4, 1872 (146)

a successful "beggar" - Epitaph
"The beggar died and was buried
- but then (I fear) the apprehension of the word ends - the invests in "Book" not "Business" did you see his plan (in relation to the examination) of keeping students from cheating - by keeping them apart - Monochism! - The more room for the Devil at each elbow!" -

Take care of your health Tell Charlie, I will send him a copy of Yakovlev's new Latin grammar when it comes to hand

Accompanying this please find Prof. Kubi's Latin - I have declined - but indubitably recommended you - so how can come!

Our sessions seem to open incomparably - "He shall see Love to all your Father"
CWA McArthur