THE DIVINITY OF CHRIST AN ESSENTIAL DOCTRINE TAUGHT IN THE SCRIPTURE.

BY REV. W. C. SEIDEL.

From the beginning to the end of the sacred Scriptures the doctrine of Tri-unity in Deity is taught as an essential fact, with no effort to demonstrate, prove or defend the facts.

Like the existence of God, the existence of the Son of God and the Holy Ghost are simply spoken of and dealt with as a matter of fact. Like God Himself they speak with divine authority, they exercise divine power and accept divine homage and worship,—divine name and titles are applied to them both by God and men.

If any one now asks: Are there then three divine beings revealed? the Scriptures as quickly reply, Nay! But they teach that the one divine Being reveals Himself in three personalities—as Father, Son and Holy Ghost; but these three are absolutely one and the same Being, namely, Jehovah, Elohim.

The above facts will be fully appreciated by a careful study of the following considerations:

I. The Scriptures reveal a Plurality of divine Personages within the One Divine Being.

1. In Gen. 1:1,2, the Word teaches that Elohim created the heaven and the earth, and that the Spirit of Elohim was associated with Him.

2. This Elohim, said in Gen. 1:26, "Let us make man in our own image, after our own likeness." Here it will not do to say that God used the plural of majesty as kings and rulers do, for they speak in the name of the realm or the people, but He spake in His own name as Jehovah Elohim as seen from Gen. 2:7, "And the Lord God formed man," etc.

From St. John 1:1-3, used simply now as a trustworthy historic record of an Israelite, we learn who constituted this plurality. It was God, and the "Word," which was itself God. Here we learn also how this "Word" became flesh and how this same person was really the Messiah. Jno. 1:14, 41. On the next day a devout Israelite calls this same person "the Son of God, . . . the King of Israel." Jno. 1:49. These are at least wonderful statements, coming as they do from pious Israelites who were well informed in their sacred Scriptures and who believed God's Word.

3. In Gen. 11:7, during the building of the Tower of Babel, Jehovah spoke, in the singular and plural and said: "Go to, let us go down and there confound their language," etc. Here, louder than ever; "O, I am certain that Jesus loves me." But I must close and get ready for my long trip home. I am so glad you pray for me. I shall be so glad to hear from you at any time you can write to me. My P. O. address will be Camp Chase, Ohio.

Lovingly and gratefully yours in the blessed hope,

JOSEPHINE COWGILL.

"God be with you till we meet again."

Oh Zion, long despairing,
And pining for thy land;
The nations now are willing,
Return, thou pilgrim band.

CHORUS—
Zion, awake, make haste,
Thy land before thee lies.
Return, return apace,
Thy Lord is in the skies.

Thy land thy God is keeping,
Reserving for His own;
Come thou, refrain thy weeping,
And now no longer roam.

Chorus.

Thy King is quickly coming,
Not as the lowly man,
But as a Monarch reigning
O'er sea and every land.

Chorus.

The one whom thou wast piercing,
See Him before thine eyes,
Ten thousand hosts attending,
Thy Lord is in the skies.

Chorus.

Thine enemies are scattering,
Before thy faithful Lord,
Even now thy hosts He's gathering
According to His word.

Chorus.

—Frank Dyer.

The watch-makers of Warsaw have placed on the market watches with the Zionistic inscription, "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its cunning." These Zionistic watches are in great demand, and the manufacturers have made a great profit on them.—Jewish Gazette.

Blessed be the LORD out of Zion which dwelleth at Jerusalem.

"When the LORD shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory. He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer. This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD. For he hath looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth; to hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose the children of death (margin); to declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem: when the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD." Ps. 102:16-22.
