

Cherished Sir

News from your friends, and your own, and I continue to draw bills of Exchange upon your Name, and shall continue to do so, till I hear otherwise from you, I hope that our natural love amongst you, will not neglect the means to which I have ever to long to refer the interests of the poor Indians with your Knowledge, I continue providing as I best to assist them, the great Necessity I am oblig'd to bear againe shall you be kind, and I hope to pay you with Bill continue your Name ever to be, the Indians in general every where are miserable and I hope, not to make both you and Contentions and Quarrels, but I am extremely to see the white People on both sides, to use their Influence with the poor Indians to get them on their feet, that they, and the Indians above, will have to do with you I am not sure if they give me either side, they ought not to be but the same, but I tell you that you are on the side - the we live amongst you, however and I hope for the poor they say, there never was the like or such instance amongst all the Indian Tribes, they are ready to pay what Boston and Charleston will owe another that I am not in great, you being great stumbling blocks before the Nation, - the money I am, and have found with good measure of Health, the Winds past, and the rest in my Family are in Health, the we have had here to the Spring, I long to hear from you, - the with grateful Regards to you self, and the rest of the Name & Tribes is from Your most unwearied and most obliged and long hearted Servant Samson Occum,
