

Hon<sup>r</sup> Sir

I just now receiv'd yours for which I return sincere thanks. - You may expect soon to see me at Norwich, at the Time appointed extraordinaries are expected, - The Inclos'd is what I shall write to M<sup>r</sup> Keech, concerning your School This with Duty is from

Mahegan
Dec<sup>r</sup> 28. 1768

Your most unworthy
Servant

C. Deme

M<sup>r</sup>. Occoin's
Dec<sup>r</sup>. 22. 1768.

Some Time after I wrote to you, was at D<sup>r</sup> Wheelock's, and found myself under a mistake, for he told me, he had not receiv'd any Letter from our Honorable Trustees since he got home from England, and finding, he had Some Letters from England Concerning D<sup>r</sup> Whitaker's Conduct whereby he gave a Displeasur to our most worthy Trustees and others - and told me also, he had excluded him from Trust here - I thought it my Duty, to relate the whole matter to him, and he was much astonish'd with it - and he Desir'd to know my opinion of the Honorable Trustees, and I freely told him I look'd on em as the most worthy, Honest, and faithful men Disintrusted in their Trust - I believ there is no danger of alienating his mind from the Honorable Trustees - The good old gentleman is most wore out, yet he is steady as the sun he keeps on in good work - his confidence is in god still - there is good News in the wilderness among the waydars, many are hopefully turn'd from Darkness to vital godliness -

Monday

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]