

of Honourable
Rev. ofgentlemen;

As I stand in Connection to you, so I find it my Duty to make my Faults known to you. — I have been shamefully, and taken with strong Drinks, by which I have greatly wounded the Cause of God, and blasphemed the Pure Religion of Jesus Christ, and blighted my own Character, and ^{brought a reproach on the ministry,} ~~framed~~, and hurt my own Soul — For which as in the sight of God, I acknowledge, I am sorry, and sincerely Repent — And I humbly beseege forgiveness — and Pray ye to God for me. — I resolve, relying upon the grace of God, to keep a better guard and watch over my Self in Time to come & desire to be restored to the Charity of all who have been offended thereby.

Samuel Occom.

Mohogan,
Jan. 4: 1769.

To
The Honourable Board of Commissioners of the Treasury in Scotland, - Now Sitting at Norwich.

W^m Thomson Esq^r of London Jan^y 20th 1769