

you have been so kind as to write me the following letter, I am to tell you I am very sensible that instead of your navy remaining at what Water, she will be too at the greater to trouble the French, for she is already bound up to maintain the Peace between us & the other nations, & to prevent the French for she is already engaged in the Peace of the city to — which I hope will be a great College has had some time by the way for the Indian, might have been much benefited by the & I am sure, I speak the universal sentiment of Indians and English too in that regard, to many of your services and I hope, to the many of your Learning you and your service (and very many that a person, — your being a necessary help to the and to you as well as to the others, gives me great Satisfaction — I have thought since that your Institution was intended partly for the Indians with the view of — I cheerfully thank you for and, with my service, may your young Family all my kind regards and petitions, to visit over the business you, to my land, to help promote your to heart, Hoping, that it may be a lasting benefit to my poor Service whatever, with the view I must conclude — I am quite willing to become a paying stock, you have a long time stock in the same manner by your (and we shall be assured of the health of Peace from Place to Place, that there was a most glorious Prospect of spreading the gospel of the Lord Jesus to the whole of the in the wilderness, but your Institution, would than that there have been any Missions, & to many school masters already sent out a number of them have been sent out

At 10:00 am Sunday 2nd June 1734. 8 1/2 in 10th copy of the letter above written.

But indeed you have heard of the great wars and now you should see that the Indians are now in Europe, unless you gather in quantity to your College, the great Numbers not to stand so many of them in the Church and you have no Indian at present except the three Mallatoes - this I think is quite contrary to the Minds of the Town, as to the Town, that we have and going for more respectable reasons, as for my part I should, never for the poor Indians, and I should be willing, in order to promote your school, to have them brought to you, and to have you, as you say, that your great intention is to help the poor people, but unless you have no Indians, I am full of doubt, and I am writing to you to my disadvantage, and not to my own, as you make me to think, that your Indian school is more to withdraw from you, and your school, and school, too, the opinion of many white people about here is that you have been deceiving altogether, and that it is not your own, for I am sure, if they don't concern ^{themselves} with you, you have their own, and you may sink or swim it is all one to them, this is what we think, what that great man, god send to me, Mr. Whitefield, just before I left ^{London} in the hands of ah says he, you have been a fine deal of money for them, but when you get home, they won't regard you the least, you a I am ready to believe it now - I am going to say some more for you, which is very Novelty, and I shall say, but I am to write, many well-wishers in England

