

Rec<sup>d</sup> of Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sec<sup>y</sup> London May 30 1766

Pray look and see what it was the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Commis<sup>ns</sup> of Boston did towards my Education, I think you shou<sup>d</sup> an account of it, and send Master Rudolphus to Cap<sup>t</sup> Mawson of N<sup>o</sup> London, to know what he pay'd me for the Commis<sup>ns</sup>, and how many years he pay'd me - and send the Account with all speed, for it is of great Consequence that we have them, - the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Commis<sup>ns</sup> of Boston have wrote against us, they signify withall, they supported me while I was Learning at your House, & have supported me ever since, and you all say better and you took me away from them &c &c - I have had a severe turn of a Bloody Flux for a week past, but I am almost well thro' God's great goodness - my Eyes are weak I can see much at this Time - I hope it is but with you at Sincere respects from your unworthy Servant
J. Boone
