

Rev. Sir

I write you these Letters this Summer Past, but I have not received one syllable, either from you or from any body else. — I have met with great many Difficulties, but I have not repented of my Journey yet. I am too happy it will be of some Service to the Indians. — I can't relate things in this Letter, — I must make a Narration of matters. — I am just here by my Fortune, my Horse got away from me last Monday Night, and he is not found yet. — my Eyes are very poor and I am ^{un}able to read or write this whole Month — when I shall get home or how I can't tell — Sir, Please to accept this as a token of Duty and sincere Respect to all, from Your Indian Son
