HISTORY.

The idea of an organization including the several Churches of the Protestant Reformation was a favorite thought of many of the leading Reformers. Calvin, writing to Archbishop Cranmer in 1552, said, "When our purpose is to unite the sentiments of all good and learned men, and so according to the rule of Scripture, to bring the separated Churches into one, neither labor nor trouble of any kind should be spared." The idea was embodied in the second Book of Discipline of the Church of Scotland (1580), and given a definite form in a section reading:

"There is besydes these, an uther mair generall kynde of assemblie, quhilk is of all nations and estaits of persons within the Kirk, representing the universall Kirk of Christ: Quhilk may be callit properlie the Generall Assemblie or Generall Councell of the haill Kirk of God."

The Synod of Dort, called by the States General of Holland, and meeting at Dort, 1618-19, was the first of the ecumenical councils of the Reformed Churches. Invitations were sent to all the Protestant Churches, and the majority of them were represented by delegates, five of whom were from the Church of England. The Westminster Assembly, held at London, England, 1643-52, was also in part representative of the unity of the Church, for commissioners were appointed or invited to it from the Churches of Scotland, Ireland and New England, as well as of England. That distinguished body was not therefore a local gathering, but has been justly regarded as the first of the ecclesiastical councils of English-speaking Christians. A little after the middle of the nineteenth century, influential Presbyterians in Great Britain and the United States began to suggest the forming of a general organization which should include all the

Reformed Churches wherever found. Chief among the leaders in the new movement were the Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., President of Princeton University, U.S. A., and the Rev. William Garden Blaikie, D.D., LL.D., of the Free Church College, Edinburgh, Scotland. In the year 1870, Dr. McCosh gave expression to his views on the subject in a sermon preached before the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. A., at Philadelphia, Pa. This was the first Assembly of the reunited Old and New School Churches, and the auspicious occasion furthered the suggestions made by him. In his discourse, Dr. McCosh said, "It has long been a favorite idea of mine that all the Presbyterian Churches may be brought together at a Pan-Presbyterian Council at which each of them might be represented. I believe that the idea of such a union has occurred to many within the last few years. I do not claim to myself any superiority of wisdom; but for the last ten years I have been speaking and writing on this subject in a variety of quarters. I was met with a right Irish cheer when I proclaimed it in the General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterians. I unfolded my views more fully in an article of the Weekly Review, an able organ of the Presbyterian Church published in I believe I spoke of it at the meetings of both General Assemblies at St. Louis, in 1866." It was at this Reunion Assembly that Dr. Blaikie, who was a delegate to it from the Free Church of Scotland, first became, according to his own testimony,* fully imbued with the desirability of the establishment of that Alliance, in which he has been, under the blessing of God, so potential and beneficial a power. Action by ecclesiastical bodies in harmony with Dr. McCosh's proposal was taken in 1873, both in Ireland and the United States. American General Assembly the following overture was approved, and a Committee appointed to correspond with other Churches:

"Whereas, There is substantial unity in faith, discipline and worship among the Presbyterian Churches in this and other lands; Whereas, It is important to exhibit this unity to other Churches and the world; Whereas, A desire has been expressed in many lands for closer union, among all branches of the great and widely scattered family of Presbyterian Churches; therefore,

"Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of the Moderator (Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D.), the Stated Clerk (Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D.), and the Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., be appointed to correspond with sister Churches holding by the Westminster Standards, with the view of bringing about an ecumenical council of such Churches, to consider subjects of common interest to all, and especially to promote harmony of action in the mission fields at home and abroad."

An overture substantially similar was adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. In October, 1873, a meeting of ministers and laymen was held in the city of New York, under the auspices of the Committee of the American General Assembly. About 150 persons attended, and the following resolutions were adopted unanimously:

- "1. That, Whereas, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, at their last meetings, passed resolutions in favor of an ecumenical council of Presbyterian Churches, we, providentially brought together at this time, and belonging to various branches of the Presbyterian family, cordially sympathise with these movements towards a General Council of the Presbyterian Churches in various lands.
- "2. That a Committee be appointed to correspond with individuals and with organized bodies in order to ascertain the feeling of Presbyterians in regard to such federal council, and to take such measures as may in their judgment promote this object.
- "3. That this Committee be authorized to coöperate, as far as possible, with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and with the Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Committee thus authorized consisted of the representatives of ten Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, the Chairman being the Rev. Dr. James McCosh. This Committee issued a fraternal address to the Churches generally, asking the appointment of Committees of Correspondence, and suggesting other arrangements for the practical outworking of the proposal The proposition of the Committee was folfor a Council. lowed in 1874 by the appointment of Committees as suggested by many General Assemblies and General Synods. In addition, Dr. McCosh visited Great Britain and conferred with the Committees appointed by the Presbyterian Churches of the United Kingdom. As a result of his visit, preliminary meetings were held at Edinburgh on November 13, and at New York on December 3, 1874. At the Edinburgh conference there were present the representatives of six Churches, with the Rev. Dr. At the New York meeting the representa-Duff in the chair. tives of seven Churches were in attendance, with Rev. Dr. John Hall as Chairman. Both meetings approved of a joint preliminary congress of delegates from British, American, Continental and Colonial Churches to be held in London in 1875, and if the way should be clear, to adopt a Constitution and make other arrangements for the first meeting of a General Council. conformity with this plan, the General Assemblies and Synods of the Churches in 1875 appointed representatives, and a conference, which is justly regarded as the first conciliar gathering since the seventeenth century of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system, was held in the English Presbyterian College, Guilford street, London, on Wednesday, July 21, in that year, and was presided over by the Rev. Dr. McCosh, with Prof. Blaikie, of Edinburgh, and the Rev. G. D. Mathews, of New York, as the Clerks. The work of the London conference included the organization of the Alliance, the adoption of a Constitution, and the agreement that the First Council should be held at Edinburgh, Scotland, on July 4, 1876. This date for the Edinburgh Council, however, was found to be unacceptable to the American Churches, owing to the fact that the year appointed was that of the Centennial celebration of American Independence, and the meeting was postponed, therefore, until July 3, 1877.

The first General Council was highly successful, and there were present two hundred and twenty delegates and eighty associates from the following forty-three Churches:

The General Councils, since the first, have been held as follows: at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1880; Belfast, Ireland, in 1884; London, England, in 1888; Toronto, Canada, in 1892, and Glasgow, Scotland, in 1896. The proceedings of the Councils have been published in six octavo volumes.

During the intervals between Councils, the business of the Alliance was first conducted by general Committees responsible only to the Council. This plan was altered at the Belfast Council in 1884 [see Belfast Vol., p. 527]. An Executive Commission was there constituted, whose organization and whose powers are indicated on p. 22. This Executive Commission is divided into two sections, one for North America, and the other for the remaining five continents. They are called the Western and the Eastern Sections respectively, and each has its own Chairman and Secretary. At Belfast, Toronto and London provision was also made for a more thorough organization of the Council. That body has now its own officers, viz., a President, who is the President of the Alliance, and two Secretaries, the one General and the other the American Secretary, who are Secretaries of the Alliance. These Secretaries are also the Stated and Permanent Clerks of the Council, and perform in addition the duties of Secretaries, respectively for the Eastern and Western Sections. There are also two Temporary Clerks, who are appointed at each Council, and aid the Secretaries in their duties.

The following ministers have been Presidents of the Alliance:

- 1. Rev. W. G. Blaikie, D.D., LL.D., 1888-92, who presided at the Toronto Council.
- 2. Rev. Talbot W. Chambers, D.D., LL.D., 1892-96. Dr Chambers departed this life February 2, 1896.
- 3. Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., who was chosen as the successor of Dr. Chambers, and presided at the Glasgow Council, June, 1896.

The Rev. J. Marshall Lang, D.D., of Glasgow, Scotland, is the President of the Alliance for the term 1896-99.

The General Secretary of the Alliance is Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D., London, England, and the American Secretary is the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., of Philadelphia, Pa.

In addition to the Executive Commission, the work of the Council is carried forward through Committees which are appointed by the Council, though under the supervision of the Executive Commission. These Committees are:

- 1. The Committee on Coöperation in Foreign Missions.
- 2. The Committee on Work on the European Continent.
- 3. The Committee on Sabbath-schools.
- 4. The Committee on Desiderata of Presbyterian History.
- 5. The Committee on Coöperation in Home Missions; which is a Committee only of the Western Section.

The constituency of the Alliance now [1898] consists of eighty-six different denominational or national Churches found on all the five continents, and including a Presbyterian population of about twenty-two millions. The names of the Churches will be found in the list on p. 21. Following the list of Churches will be found a statement of the Presbyterian population in the several countries of the world.

The results of the work of the Alliance may be briefly stated as follows:

- 1. The Alliance has brought about, through its fraternal influence, the unification of the Foreign Mission work of its Churches in Japan, Brazil and other places, and has also established closer relations between Foreign Mission workers in other lands.
- 2. It has secured the adoption of a Plan of Coöperation in Home Mission work between the majority of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America.
  - 3. It has brought the influence of the Churches of the Reformation to bear upon civil governments in various parts of the world, in the interests of humanity and of peace. For instance, it exercised an important influence upon the policy of both the British and the American governments for the regulation of the liquor traffic in the islands of the Western Pacific, and has also effectively supported the acceptance of the principle of arbitration for the settlement of controversies between nations.

4. It has brought into practical, sympathetic and mutually beneficial relations, Churches scattered throughout the world, maintaining in general the same type of doctrine and the same form of government.

To some of the Churches on the Continent of Europe the Alliance has been remarkably helpful, as, for instance, by the aid extended in the name of the Alliance to the Bohemian Church, under the lead of the late Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., of Philadelphia. The Churches of the Continent are to-day stronger and more hopeful than they were at the date of the establishment of the Alliance. This is notably the case with the Reformed Church of Hungary, with its two millions of members and adherents. Another illustration of the attractive influence of the Alliance is found in the recent union effected between the Presbyterian Churches and Missions in South Africa, and the movement for federation among the Churches of Australia.

5. It has enabled the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the world, as true children of the Reformation, to make themselves distinctly felt as a great power in the life and progress of the Church Universal. Next to the Lutheran Church, the Churches of the Alliance represent the largest body of Protestants in the world. They represent, further, the great principles which are intimately connected with the progress of civil and religious liberty. Further, they are a true ecumenical or catholic branch of the Church universal, their ministers and members being found in all important countries. They constitute the Presbyterian or Reformed communion, and cover a world-wide territory. There is but one other communion which is as extensive. Side by side on every continent stand the Romanist and the Presbyterian; the teacher face to face with the priest; the open Bible in opposition to the confessional; liberty opposing tyranny; the obedience of Christ confronting the obedience of Rome. Through the Alliance and its Churches, cooperating with other followers of Christ, may the petitions soon be answered, "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

CONSTITUTION OF THE ALLIANCE.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, Churches holding the Reformed faith, and organized on Presbyterian principles, are found, though under a variety of names, in different parts of the world;

Whereas, Many of these were long wont to maintain close relations, but are at present united by no visible bond, whether of fellowship or of work: and

Whereas, In the providence of God, the time seems to have come when they may all more fully manifest their essential oneness, have closer communion with each other, and promote great causes by joint action;

It is agreed to form a Presbyterian Alliance to meet in General Council from time to time, in order to confer on matters of common interest, and to further the ends for which the Church has been constituted by her divine Lord and only King.

In forming this Alliance, the Presbyterian Churches do not mean to change their fraternal relations with other Churches, but will be ready, as heretofore, to join with them in Christian fellowship, and in advancing the cause of the Redeemer, on the general principle maintained and taught in the Reformed Confessions that the Church of God on earth, though composed of many members, is One Body in the Communion of the Holy Ghost, of which Body Christ is the Supreme Head, and the Scriptures alone are the infallible law.

ARTICLES.

- I. DESIGNATION.--This Alliance shall be known as "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System."
- II. MEMBERSHIP.—Any Church organized on Presbyterian principles which holds the supreme authority of the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments in matters of faith and morals, and whose creed is in harmony with the consensus of the Reformed Confessions, shall be eligible for admission into the Alliance.

III. THE COUNCIL.

- 1. Its Meetings.—The Alliance shall meet in General Council ordinarily once in three years.
- 2. Its Constituency.—The Council shall consist of delegates, being ministers and elders, appointed by the Churches forming the Alliance; the number from each Church being regulated by a plan sanctioned by the Council, regard being had generally to the number of congregations in the several Churches. The delegates, as far as practicable, to consist of an equal number of ministers and elders. The Council may, on the recommendation of a Committee on Business, invite Presbyterian brethren, not delegates, to offer suggestions, to deliver addresses, and to read papers.
- 3. Its Powers.—The Council shall have power to decide upon the application of Churches desiring to join the Alliance; it shall have power to entertain and consider topics which may be brought before it by any Church represented in the Council, or by any member of the Council, on their being transmitted in the manner hereinafter provided; but it shall not interfere with the existing creed or Constitution of any Church in the Alliance, or with its internal order or external relations.
- 4. Its Objects.—The Council shall consider questions of general interest to the Presbyterian community; it shall seek the welfare of Churches, especially such as are weak or persecuted; it shall gather and disseminate information concerning the kingdom of Christ throughout the world; it shall commend the Presbyterian system as Scriptural, and as combining simplicity, efficiency, and adaptation to all times and conditions; it shall also entertain all subjects directly connected with the work of evangelization, such as the relation of the Christian Church to the evangelization of the world, the distribution of mission work, the combination of Church energies, especially in reference to great cities and destitute districts, the training of ministers, the use of the press, colportage, the religious instruction of the young, the sanctification of the Sabbath, systematic beneficence, the suppression of intemperance and other prevailing vices, and the best methods of opposing infidelity and Romanism.

- 5. Its Methods.—The Council shall seek to guide and stimulate public sentiment by papers read, by addresses delivered and published, by the circulation of information respecting the allied Churches and their missions, by the exposition of Scriptural principles, and by defenses of the truth; by communicating the Minutes of its proceedings to the Supreme Courts of the Churches forming the Alliance, and by such other action as is in accordance with its Constitution and objects.
- 6. Committee on Business.—The Council, at each general meeting, shall appoint a Committee on Business, through which all communications and notices of subjects purposed to be discussed shall pass. The Committee appointed at one general meeting shall act provisionally, so far as is necessary, in preparing for the following meeting.
- IV. CHANGE OF CONSTITUTION.—No change shall be made in this Constitution, except on a motion made at one general meeting of Council, not objected to by a majority of the Churches, and carried by a two-thirds vote at the next general meeting.

PLAN AND RULES OF ADMINISTRATION.

I. THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION.

- 1. There shall be appointed by the Council at each meeting an Executive Commission, whose function shall be, during the intervals between the meetings of Council, to promote the objects of the Alliance.
- 2. This Commission shall consist of not fewer than fifty members, and be divided into two or more Sections; at present, into an Eastern Section and a Western Section, each having power to fill vacancies in its own number.
- 3. Seven shall constitute a quorum of each Section, and at least that number of members shall reside within reach of a convenient place of meeting.
- 4. It shall be for the consideration of the Executive Commission whether separate auxiliary Alliances shall also be formed for the Continent of Europe and the Colonies of Great Britain, or whether these shall be included in Subsections under the other Sections. The Commission shall report to next meeting of Council, giving an account of the operations of all its Sections [1884, p. 527].

NOTE.—The Toronto Council resolved, "That a Sub-section be constituted, to be known as the Australian Sub-section, and that the details of its organization be referred to the Eastern Section."—1892, pp. 39, 371. This subject is still left in the hands of the Eastern Section. See Appendix, Report of Eastern Section, p. 16; 1896, p. 34.

II. OBJECTS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION.

The objects of this Executive Commission shall, with due regard to the constituent Churches, be such as the following:

- 1. To carry out the decisions of the Council.
- 2. To superintend the printing and publication of its proceedings.
- 3. To communicate with the Churches of the Alliance. All communications of Committees to Churches to be transmitted through the Commission.

- 4. To collect and publish information respecting the Reformed Churches and their work.
- 5. To send deputations to Continental or Colonial Churches, or to Foreign Mission Stations, when occasion requires, and the funds admit.
- 6. To extend sympathy and assistance to all Missions, missionaries, and Churches, but especially when these are under persecution.
- 7. To take action on great questions of morality, and to refer such questions for the consideration of the Council [1892, pp. 205, 255].
- 8. To hold public meetings in order to communicate information respecting the Alliance, and to make known and promote its objects as may be deemed expedient.
- 9. To aid Standing Committees by supplementing their number when the services of convener or members may have been lost through death, sickness or removal; and to render to Committees such other aid as may be in their power.
- 10. To prepare the programme for the next meeting of Council.
- 11. To receive the credentials or commissions of delegates to the Council.
- 12. To arrange for the printing, in good time, of papers—especially reports necessary for the use of the Council.
- 13. To publish, if judged desirable, a journal, as the official record or organ of the Alliance; the Commission having a right to employ a portion of its income in conducting and maintaining such a periodical.
- 14. To raise the funds needful for the work of the Alliance [1884, p. 528.].

III. BOUNDS OF THE SECTIONS.

The Council agreed, that the American (Western) Section should be held to consist of the Churches in the United States of America and Canada, while the European (Eastern) Section should include the Churches of all other lands [1884, p. 529].

IV. THE PRESIDENT.

That a President be appointed for the Alliance, who shall hold office from one Council to the next; and that a member of the Eastern or Western Section shall hold this office alternately [1896, p. 355; see also, 1888, p. 387].

V. GENERAL SECRETARY.*

- 1. That it is desirable that a General Secretary for the Alliance be appointed at this Council, whose salary shall be a charge upon the above-mentioned income [1888, p. 267].
- 2. That it shall be the duty of the General Secretary to give his whole time to the interests of the Alliance, and especially to assist the Executive Commission as they may direct, in carrying on all their work, as that was defined by the Belfast Council, or may hereafter be determined [1888, p. 267].
- 3. The Secretary shall divide his time between the two Sections of the Commission, and shall act as Stated Clerk to the meetings of Council [1884, p. 528].
- 4. That the General Secretary shall hold his appointment at the pleasure of the Council [1888, p. 267].
- 5. That for the sake of the work to be performed, the General Secretary be required to reside in the United Kingdom, and that it be left to the European Section of the Executive Commission to determine the place of his residence [1888, p. 267].
- 6. That the salary attached to the office of General Secretary shall be fixed for the present at £500 per annum [1888, p. 304].
- 7. That when directions are given to the General Secretary as to the disposal of his time in the work of the Alliance, the two Sections shall concur in such directions [1888, p. 304].
- 8. That the General Secretary correspond with all the Churches, and use all means in his power for securing full and accurate returns of a statistical character.
- *It was unanimously agreed that Dr. George D. Mathews, of Quebec, be appointed General Secretary of the Alliance [1888, p. 267].

9. The General Secretary shall be a member ex officio of all Committees of Council [1888, p. 267].

VI. AMERICAN SECRETARY.*

- 1. That there shall also be an American Secretary, to reside in North America, who shall be appointed by the Council [1888, p. 267].
- 2. The duties of this Secretary shall be to aid the General Secretary in obtaining information; to be in official matters the medium of communication between the Western and the Eastern Sections, and to perform such other work as the Western Section of the Executive Commission shall prescribe [1892, p. 280].
- 3. All official communications from the General Secretary to the American Churches shall be signed by the President and General Secretary of the Alliance, and countersigned by the Chairman and Secretary of the Western Section [1892, p. 280].
- 4. That the American or Western Secretary shall be a member ex officio of the Committees of the Western Section [1888, p. 267].

VII. TREASURERS.

The Treasurers of the Alliance were at first Treasurers of the Eastern and Western Sections respectively [see 1888, pp. 357, 387, 389]. The Treasurer of the Eastern Section is now the General Treasurer of the Alliance, and the Treasurer of the Western Section is the American Treasurer [see 1892, p. 369, and 1896, p. 355].

VIII. FILLING VACANCIES.

1. That in the case of a vacancy in any office to which an

The American Secretary shall be nominated to the Council by the American delegates [1888, p. 267]. On report of the delegates, appointment has been made by the Council, the Executive Commission is hereby authorized to fill the same until the next meeting of the Council [1888, p. 304].

The Council unanimously appointed the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, of Cincinnati, O., as American Secretary of the Council [1888, p. 306].

2. That each Section shall have power, for absence or other satisfactory reason, to declare vacant the place of any member of that Section, and to fill such other vacancies; also to add to their number when deemed advisable [1896, p. 358].

IX. THE BUSINESS COMMITTEE.

That in order to facilitate the transaction of its business, each Council shall appoint a Committee, to be known as the Business Committee, and that this Committee shall consist of thirty members, fifteen being selected from the Eastern and fifteen from the Western Section, with power to add to their numbers. The work of this Committee shall be:

- 1. To arrange from time to time, the order of considering such business as shall come before the Council.
- 2. To consider every resolution referred to it by the Council, with power to transmit or reject the same, or to suggest or substitute.
  - 3. To nominate all Special Committees [1892, p. 343]. [See Constitution, Article iii, Section 6, p. 17.]

X. THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

1. The Council having regard to Foreign Mission work as an essential and urgent duty, needing to be much more earnestly prosecuted by all Christian Churches, and in which it is of increasing importance that there should be the utmost attainable cooperation amongst the Churches of this Alliance, appoint a Committee to collect and digest full information as to the fields at present occupied by them, their plans and modes of operations, with instructions to report the same to the next General Council, together with any suggestions they may judge it wise to submit respecting the possibility of consolidating existing agencies, or preparing the way for cooperation in the future [1877, p. 275].

2. It is remitted to the Committees of the Eastern and Western Sections to prepare before each meeting of the Council a conspectus of the Foreign Mission work done by the various Presbyterian Churches throughout the world, and by the societies in connection with Presbyterian Churches [1896, p. 226].

XI. THE COMMITTEE ON WORK ON THE CONTINENT OF EUROPE.

The Council rejoices that its membership includes so many representatives of Presbyterian Churches of the Continent of Europe, and considering that the difficulties which several, if not all, of these Churches encounter from the aggressions of ultramontanism and infidelity, as well as from other causes, entitle them to the special interest and sympathy of the Council, and considering also that it will be impossible for the Council at its ordinary meetings to receive from the delegates and associates that detailed information regarding their respective Churches which the delegates may wish to give, the Council instructs the Business Committee to nominate a Special Committee of the Council for the purpose of conferring on behalf of the Council with the Continental delegates and associates, receiving such information as they may have to offer, and for the further purpose of considering the interests of Continental Churches, and also the provision made over the Continent for the English-speaking residents, American and British [1877, p. 276].

XII. COMMITTEE ON THE DESIDERATA OF PRESBYTE-RIAN HISTORY.

The Council, appreciating the importance of obtaining full information respecting the existing desiderata of the history of the Presbyterian Churches, and of the materials available for supplying them, agree to appoint a small Committee, with Dr. Lorimer, of London, as Convener, to correspond on this subject with all the branches of the Presbyterian Churches represented in the Alliance, and to prepare a report of the information which is obtained to the next meeting of the Council in 1880. The Council expresses its earnest hope that the office-bearers and members of all the Churches here represented will give liberal support and encouragement to such publications as may be suggested by the Committee now appointed, whether in the shape of new historical works or of unpublished ecclesiastical records and documents, or reprints of writings associated with the names of celebrated Presbyterian worthies [1877, p. 276].

XIII. COMMITTEE ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

That a Committee be appointed to collect, classify and report to the next Council, the methods of Sabbath-school work in the various Churches of this Alliance, and to make suggestions so as to increase the efficiency of the Sabbath-schools [1884, p. 446].

XIV. COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

That the Committee on Credentials for next Council consist of the Stated and Recording Clerks of the Council, together with the Chairman of the Executive Commission, within whose territory a given Council may meet [1892, p. 416; 1896, p. 12].

XV. COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

It is the custom to appoint a local Committee of Arrangements, for matters connected with the comfort and convenience of the delegates. "That the members of this Council, residing in Glasgow, be a local Committee of Arrangements, for the Council to be held in that city, with power to add to their number" [1892, p. 427; 1896, p. 156].

XVI. COMMITTEE ON THE RECEPTION OF CHURCHES.

It is the usage to appoint at the Councils, when necessary, a Committee to report upon applications by Churches for memship in the Alliance [1892, p. 34; 1896, p. 32].

XVII. APPOINTMENT OF COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

In the appointment of Standing Committees care shall be taken that a quorum of members reside within reach of the Convener, who shall obtain, by correspondence, the opinions of members residing at a distance [1888, p. 267].

XVIII. BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

That the representation in the Council shall be: For each hundred congregations or less, two delegates up to 1000 congregations; above 1000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2000 congregations; above 2000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations.

In the case of union of Churches represented in the Alliance, it is recommended that the number of delegates remain as previous to union, till the following meeting of the Council, when, on the union being reported to the Council, the future number of delegates shall be determined [1888, p. 308].

XIX. CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

- 1. That in order to advance the interests in cooperation in Mission fields, each of the Churches represented in this Alliance be invited to send to the meetings of Council a representative of its Foreign Mission Board or Committee, and such representative shall be entitled to act as a corresponding member [1892, p. 280].
- 2. "That in accordance with the practice of previous Councils, missionaries from foreign fields of labor, ministers from Churches on the Continent of Europe, brethren invited by the Programme Committee to read papers or to deliver addresses, Conveners of Committees reporting to this Council, and representatives of Foreign Mission Boards who may be present, be and hereby are cordially invited to seats as corresponding members" [1896, p. 22].

XX. PAPERS OF ABSENTEES.

That the General Secretary having reported the absence of several delegates who had agreed to write papers for the Council, but who had forwarded their papers, and as it has been the constant practice of the Council hitherto, that such papers should not be accepted, the Committee recommend, that, while approving of this practice when such delegates are unexpectedly hindered from being present through sickness, a portion of such paper, not exceeding five hundred words, may either be read before the Council or included in the Appendix to the Proceedings [1896, p. 295].

XXI. CLERKS OF COUNCIL.

The General Secretary being, by the rules of the Alliance, the Stated Clerk, it is recommended that the Secretary of the Western [American] Section shall be Recording Clerk to the meetings of Council. And further, that each Council shall appoint two temporary Clerks to aid in the transaction of business.

XXII. FINANCE.

- 1. That in the apportionment among the various Churches to be made by each Section of the Executive Commission, it is recommended that regard be had to the number either of congregations or of communicants in each Church, under such modifications as each Section may deem equitable in its own case [1888, p. 267].
- 2. That in the judgment of this Executive Commission, it is most desirable, with a view to secure a stable and permanent income, that the whole or a large part of the contribution expected from each Church should be paid out of Church revenue, by order of the Supreme Court of each Church, and that where this has not already been done, this Minute be brought to the notice of every such Supreme Court at its next ordinary meeting [London, 1888, Minutes of Commission].

- 3. That the estimated working expenses of the Alliance be regarded as including the following items: (1) The Secretary's salary; (2) Office expenses; (3) Quarterly register; (4) Secretary's traveling expenses [1896, p. 294].
- 4. That, under the above estimated items, £500, £50, £80 and £100 respectively, or £730 in all, be regarded as the amount necessary at present for annual working expenses; and that each Section shall remit one-half of that sum—namely, £365—to the General Treasurer each year, it being understood that it shall not be necessary to apply the £730 exactly in the proportion above set forth, if modifications in the respective items be found desirable.
- 5. That if in any year a larger sum than £730 shall be required, an estimate shall be submitted to the Western Section in time for its meeting in April.
- 6. That an annual account of expenses to 31st December of the previous year be made to the Western Section prior to said April meeting.
- 7. That the accounts to be submitted to the Council shall be made up to 31st March of the year in which the Council meets, and shall exhibit the balances to be debited or credited, as the case may be, to the Sections respectively.

XXIII. REPORTS TO THE COUNCIL.

That the reports of the Sections of the Executive Commission and the Committees of the Council be printed together prior to the meetings, and a résumé of such reports be presented to the Council by the Conveners or Chairmen, with accompanying remarks, at the time assigned for that consideration [1892, p. 255].

XXIV. QUARTERLY REGISTER.

In regard to the Quarterly Register, the Committee recommend that the Register should be enlarged, so far as the funds at the disposal of the Sections will permit; and that the Eastern and Western Sections should endeavor to secure, in each of the various Churches within the Alliance, some person who would engage to furnish the editor, for use at his discretion, with suitable information regarding said Church, and also to further the more general and effective circulation of the Register [1896, p. 295].

RULES OF THE WESTERN SECTION.

In addition to the Rules adopted by the Council, the Western Section has adopted the following:

I. TRAVELING EXPENSES.

- 1. That the traveling expenses of delegates to meetings of the Commission who come over two hundred miles be paid [April, 1889, p. 2].
- 2. In the matter of traveling expenses, it was agreed that no member of the Executive Commission shall receive a larger sum than $50, as allowance for traveling expenses in connection with attendance at any one meeting of the Commission [June, 1896, p. 9].
- 3. That the traveling expenses of the Western [American] Secretary be paid [October, 1888, p. 3].

II. APPORTIONMENTS FOR EXPENSES.

- 1. That the contributions from the several Churches should be in proportion to the number of delegates sent by them to the Councils of the Alliance.
- 2. That the Secretary of the Western Section, immediately after the April meeting of the Commission, notify each Church of the amount allocated—the basis upon which it has been made, and the purposes for which it is wanted; and that the moneys from the several Churches be forwarded annually to the Treasurer, George Junkin, Esq., Philadelphia, by the first day of July [April, 1889, p. 2].

III. DATES OF MEETINGS.

That the dates for the meetings of the Commission shall be the Thursday after the second Sabbath in April, and the last Thursday in October in each year [April, 1897, p. 4].

IV. ANNUAL REPORTS.

The Chairman and Secretary shall send to the Supreme Judicatories of the Churches represented in the Alliance, an annual report in time for presentation at the meetings of the Supreme Judicatories [April, 1887].

V. THE COMMITTEE ON COÖPERATION IN HOME MISSIONS.

This Committee was appointed by the Western Section, in April, 1894, through the reference to it by the Toronto Council of an overture from the Reformed Church in the United States, on the subject of coöperation in Home Missions. It was authorized "to confer with the officers of the various Home Mission Boards belonging to the Churches in connection with the Alliance, the Committee to report from time to time to the Commission." This Committee reported to the Council in 1896 [see Proceedings p. 420]. The Council took the following action: "The following members of the Western Section were, on the nomination of that Section, appointed as a Committee of its number on co-operation in Home Mission work" [1896, p. 358].

VI. PLAN OF COOPERATION.

The Boards and Committees of Home Missions, Church Erection, Freedmen's Missions and Sabbath-school work of the American Churches in "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System," both in the United States and Canada, recognizing with gratitude to God their substantial unity both in faith and polity, do agree upon the following principles of action for their guidance in their work, viz.: .

- "1. That in the work of all these Boards as related to each other the authority of the Church Courts is to be recognized as final.
- "2. That there shall be no interference with Churches, Missions or Sabbath-schools at present existing, unless by voluntary agreement between the denominations directly concerned.
- "3. That ordinarily, no Churches, Missions or Sabbathschools shall be established in small communities where the field is fully occupied by other Presbyterian or Reformed Churches.
- "44. That the Supreme Judicatories of the several Churches recommend their Church members when moving into new communities, in which there is no congregation of their own Church, to unite, for the time being, with some other Presbyterian or Reformed Church, if such there be.
- "5. That if cases of difference of opinion arise in connection with the work, they shall be referred for consideration and amicable adjustment to the missionary authorities of the denominations directly concerned" [April, 1896].

Interpretations of the Plan.

- 1. That the recommendations set forth in Principle No. 4 of the Plan of Coöperation of Home Missions, approved by the Western Section of this Alliance, and submitted to the several churches therein, is not to be understood as an obstacle in the way of the organization, whenever it shall be deemed wise, of a particular church of any one of our denominations, in a community where church members locate.
- 2. That Principle No. 5 of the Plan of Coöperation is to be interpreted in the light of Principle No. 1. This Section of the Alliance reiterates the declaration that the authority of the Church courts is to be recognized as final [April, 1898.]

RULES OF ORDER.

APOPTED AT THE LONDON COUNCIL OF 1888, AND CONFIRMED AT TORONTO, 1892.

1. Each Session of the Council shall be opened and closed with devotional exercises.

The order of business at every Session, unless suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, shall be as follows:

- (a) Reading and approving the Minutes.
- (b) Report of Business Committee.
- (c) The presentation of letters, papers, notices of motion, or matters requiring reference.
- (d) The presentation and consideration of Reports from Standing and Special Committees, subject to such limitation as to time as the Council may appoint.
  - (e) Orders of the day.

MOTIONS.

- 2. No action or speaking without a motion. In all matters in which a decision of the House is desired, the Council cannot act but in virtue of a motion regularly in its possession; and no speaking shall be allowed without a motion, unless it is for explanation or to a point of order.
- 3. Motion must be seconded. No motion shall be regarded as in the possession of the Council until it is seconded.
- 4. Motions reduced to writing. Every motion and amendment shall be handed to the Clerks in writing.
- 5. Withdrawal of Motions. No motion which has been made and sec onded shall be withdrawn without the leave of the Council.
- 6. Privile ged Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except—
  - "To adjourn the House;"
  - "To post pone indefinitely;"
  - "To postpone to a time specified;"

- "To refer to a Committee;" or,
- "To amend;"

and these motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are thus arranged.

The following explanations may be added:

- (a) Motion to adjourn. A motion to adjourn is always in order, except when the Council is taking a vote, or when a member is speaking.
- (b) Indefinite postponement. When any question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not be acted upon again during the entire meeting of the Council, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.
- 7. Questions not debatable. All motions "to adjourn," "to postpone indefinitely," "to take up business," in relation to the priority of business, and "to close discussion and vote," shall be put without debate or amendment.
- 8. Order of the day. When a question is postponed to a "time specified," it becomes the "order of the day" for that time, and takes the precedence of all other business.
- 9. Dealing with motions. The mode of taking the vote shall be:

When there are only two motions before the Council, the question put to the vote shall be—Motion or amendment, or first or second motion? When there are more than two motions, a vote shall be taken successively upon each, beginning with the last made; and unless it shall appear that one of the motions has a clear majority of all the votes, that which had the least number shall be dropped, and a fresh vote taken on those that remain, till only one shall be left, when the remaining motion shall be finally put to the Council as a substantive motion.

10. Reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration can be made only by a member who voted with the majority, and, unless by consent of two-thirds of the members present, can be entertained only when offered at the same, or the next subsequent, sitting of the Council.

- 11. Right of reply. Before the vote is taken, the mover of the original motion shall have the right of reply, and this shall close the debate.
- 12. President's vote. The President shall have only a casting vote.
- 13. Mode of voting. A decision of the Council shall be given either viva voce, or by a show of hands, or by a call of the roll.
- 14. Dissents. When a member disapproves of any decision, he will have a right to have his dissent entered on the minutes of proceedings; but if he assigns reasons for his dissent, these shall not be entered without leave from the Council, but shall be held in retentis by the Clerk.
